

REMARKS

Summary of the Claims

After entry of the above amendments, claims 21-38 are pending in the application. Claims 21-38 stand finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(b). The rejections of these claims were addressed in a telephonic interview as summarized below.

Amendments to the Claims

Claims 21, 27 and 33 have been amended to incorporate language proposed during the telephonic interview as summarized below.

Telephonic Interview Summary

A telephonic interview with Examiner Termanini was conducted on July 30, 2007. Applicant's representatives would like to thank Examiner Termanini for his time and consideration and for sharing his thoughts and concerns with them. Those present in addition to Examiner Termanini were Adam Citrin and Jonathan Paulis.

During the interview, the claim language was compared to the cited documents and the invention was described to Examiner Termanini in greater detail than in previous communications. After the invention was described to Examiner Termanini in greater detail, common ground was reached and it was agreed that the cited document does not teach the invention.

Examiner Termanini pointed out a lack of clarity in the claim language and approved of language proposed by applicant's representatives that clarifies the invention and clarifies the patentability of the claims over the cited document. Applicant's representatives have incorporated the proposed language exactly as agreed upon during the interview and want to again thank Examiner Termanini for his time.

Conclusion

It is respectfully submitted that the present application is in condition for allowance and notice to that effect is hereby requested. If it is determined that the application is not in condition for allowance, the Examiner is asked to please initiate a telephone interview with the undersigned representative to expedite prosecution of the present application.
